Launch of new Seaton Traders' Association

ANDERS LARSSON
anderson@viewnews.co.uk

KERRI-ANN Briggs hopes a new traders' association will provide a boost for business in Seaton.

The Imagine Design Create owner has set up Seaton Traders' Association (STA) with an aim to "create a positive and constructive group of business people willing to help and support each other and work on projects to improve Seaton".

Membership is free and the association already has 60-plus members.

Ms Briggs, who has traded in Seaton since December 2014, said: "I read a lot of negativity about trading in Seaton and saw shops closing down."

"Alongside my business I have a career as a TV demonstrator and business development manager for an international craft company."

"I have a keen interest in business development and so it started as me offering, on social media initially, my time to help anyone in business with concerns or considering starting a business in Seaton."

"From there I got a great response from other local traders, so the group formed itself."

The association will hold an open meeting on Friday, December 9th - from 12noon to 1.30pm and from 7pm-8.30pm, both in Pebbles Coffee House.

Ms Briggs said anyone is welcome, and added: "I would love for anyone who dreams of starting up a shop in Seaton to join our social media group 'Seaton Traders Association' and come along to the meetings."

"Together we all have different strengths and experiences."

"Wouldn't it be great if we could create a town full of independent retailers?"

She is a member of Seaton's existing chamber of commerce, but said: "In all honesty, even as a current member, I had no idea it was still in action."

"I haven't had any updates be it emails or letters."

"If the chamber of commerce is still in action we would be happy for any members to come along to STA meetings and see how we can work together."

About STA, she said: "We plan to run this very differently in that no money is required to join, if projects require funds we will look to raise it specifically for the project. "We are about supporting each other, taking action on project ideas and doing our best to keep in regular contact with other groups such as Seaton Town Development Team."

■ A STATE-of-the-art, 35-station and 5,000-square foot gym has formally opened in Seaton.

A part of the overall Grove site project, financed by an Axminster Tools and Machinery pension fund, the LED-managed gym has already attracted 300 new members.

Apart from the 35 stations, the gym also features a weight area and a fitness class studio.

Doors opened for customers in mid-November, and a formal opening ceremony

New gym opens

was held on Monday, December 5th.

Invited guests were given the grand tour before LED chairman Nigel Halford cut the ribbon to declare the gym open.

LED chief executive Peter Galpin, LED chairman Nigel Halford and Axminster Tools and Machinery pension funds manager Ian Styles are pictured at the opening.

HEALTH MATTERS

Funds for mums with mental health issues

FUNDING to provide increased support for pregnant women and new mums suffering mental illness has been welcomed by health bosses across Devon.

NHS Northern, Eastern and Western Devon (NHS NEW Devon) is among 20 areas in the UK to receive a share of £40million to fund new specialist community mental health services for mums in the immediate run up to and after birth, and help reach 30,000 more women a year by 2021.

A further £20m will be allocated next year.

Simon Stevens, chief executive of NHS England, announced the funding at a national Mind conference last week and said it will see new or bigger teams in those areas providing specialist care for all new and expectant mums with severe mental ill health like severe post-natal depression.

It will fund new perinatal consultants, specialist nurses, occupational therapists, psychologists and nursery nurses as well as community peer support for mums, babies and families.

David McAuley, interim head of commissioning for NHS NEW Devon CCG, said: "The development of these services will make a real difference to new and expectant mothers with mental health issues and their families and will ensure that those who need speedy access to treatment and support are able to access it in a timely manner.

"The new services will provide specialist, evidence-based treatment for a wide range of conditions, and will help mothers and families recover from mental ill health whilst supporting them to become more effective parents.

"The success of this bid is due in part to successful collaboration between providers and commissioners spanning organisational and geographical boundaries."

Dr Jo Black, of Devon Partnership NHS Trust, which provides mental health and learning disability services across Devon and Torbay, added: "NHS England has recently announced that it will also fund a specialist mother and baby unit in the south west, for women with mental health needs, and we are doing everything possible to ensure that this this much-needed new facility is located in Devon."

New ambulance training unit

DORSET and Somerset Air Ambulance has opened a clinical training facility at its Henstridge base.

The new facility also includes an aviation planning room, improved clinical storage and crew rest facilities.

Funding for the project was provided last year by Association of Air Ambulances Charity (AAAC) after £5 million was allocated from the Banking Fines Fund (LIBOR) by the then Chancellor of the Exchequer, George Osborne, in support of UK's air ambulances.

Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance received a slice of that money and CEO Bill Sivewright said: "We owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to so many people.

"To our landlords, Geoff Jarvis and Losan Ltd, for giving us the opportunity to further enhance the hangar that they so generously provide to the charity.

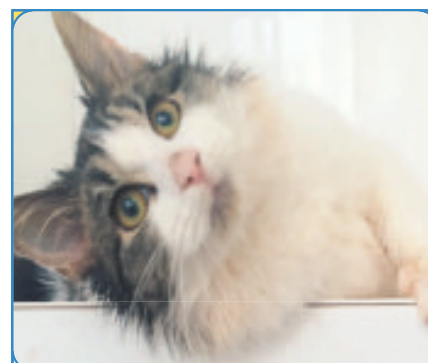

"To Babcock International, who, as well as supporting our flying operations, brought their wider industry expertise to bear and manage the build project.

"To the AAAC for helping to secure and distribute the funds and to South Western Ambulance Service NHS Foundation Trust for their enduring support to the charity's operations, especially during a significant period of change.

"Finally, to the air ambulance crew who have lived through a great deal of disruption with patience and flexibility and have done so without any drop in the life-saving service provided to the people of Dorset and Somerset."

Hospital beds body 'spends £41k a month on leadership review'

By PHILIP EVANS
and PETER HODGES

THE NHS body responsible for closing community hospital beds in East Devon is spending £41,400 a month on "developing leadership capabilities," it has been alleged this week.

A letter has been sent to the NHS Northern Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group by the East Devon Group of the Campaign to Protect Rural England.

The letter, dated December 1st, to Mrs Angela Pedder, the Lead Chief Executive of the CCG's Success Regime, asked her to confirm that the CCG had instructed Carnall Farrar Ltd to undertake the work.

The letter, signed by the chairman and vice-chairman of the East Devon Group CPRE, Dr Margaret Hall, and Mr T.J.W. Hale, also questioned the impartiality of Dame Ruth Carnall, who is chairman of the Success Regime but also a director and shareholder of Carnall Farrar Ltd.

"This would appear to be a clear conflict of interest, affecting all parties, which alone could be sufficient to justify a judicial review of the outcome of this consultation," said the letter.

The letter goes on to say that to overcome this difficulty it would be appropriate for Dame Ruth to resign as chairman and for Carnall Farrar Ltd's contract to be terminated.

The Success Regime was set up as one of three areas in the UK where there were

Neil Parish: The CCG should be spending as little as possible on consultancy deep rooted financial problems in delivering health services.

It was introduced in Devon following a forecast of a £40 million deficit for 2014-15 increasing to £87 million in 2015-16 (see below).

The letter from the East Devon Group CPRE was also sent to East Devon MPs Neil Parish and Sir Hugo Swire.

Mr Parish commented: "It is vital the CCG gets the best value possible when spending taxpayers' money."

"At a time when the CCG are consulting on closing community hospital beds across East Devon, they should be spend-

Sir Hugo Swire: Declined to comment until he had read the letter ing as little as possible on consultancy fees and ploughing as much money as possible into frontline care."

Sir Hugo declined to comment until he had the opportunity to study the letter.

We have sought a response from the CCG but they failed to meet our deadline.

We asked them to confirm the following:

- ◆ That the monthly consultancy fee is £41,400?
- ◆ How long has that monthly fee been paid?
- ◆ How long will the monthly fee be paid?
- ◆ Is there a conflict of interest with Dame Ruth Carnall chairing the Devon Success Regime when she is a shareholder and director of Carnall Farrar Ltd, the company which was awarded the contract?

We will be pleased to print the CCG's responses to these questions in our next issue and on our website as soon as they are received.

Dame Ruth - 30 years in healthcare

■ DAME Ruth Carnall has over 30 years' experience in health care, including 20 years as a chief executive in acute hospitals, mental health, community services and health authorities.

She spent seven years in charge of the NHS in London as Chief Executive of NHS London and now works providing strategic advice to leaders in healthcare.

Prior to NHS London, Dame Ruth worked as an independent consultant with a range of clients from the public and private sector, including the Department of Health, Monitor, NHS Trusts, the Prime Minister's Delivery Office, the Cabinet Office and GSK.

She was appointed by the then Mayor of London, Boris Johnson, in 2013 to provide advice and expertise on major health issues affecting London.

Dame Ruth was made a Dame Commander of the British Empire in 2011 for her achievements in healthcare.

What is the Devon Success Regime?

THE North, East and West (NEW) Devon Success Regime is one of three such programmes in the country - the others are Essex and Cumbria - and is part of the NHS Five Year Forward View, the blueprint for the NHS which sets out the challenges facing health and care nationally and how radical change is needed to sustain services and improve care for patients.

The Success Regime focuses on certain areas in the country where there are deep-rooted, systemic pressures, such as financial deficits or issues of service quality. Devon was one of these areas and the description of the work undertaken (reproduced here) was taken from the Carnall Farrar Ltd website.

The issue

IN MID 2015, the combined NHS commissioner and provider economy in North, East and West Devon was forecasting a deficit of £40m for 2014/15 and a recurring deficit of £87m into 2015/16. Further, the system was failing to deliver many of the key performance standards.

The key providers and commissioners in Devon lacked a detailed fact-based understanding of why healthcare services in Devon were clinically and financially unsustainable.

The work

A TEAM from Carnall Farrar, led by Ben Richardson and Ruth Carnall, was initially brought in to develop a detailed case for change which would set the scene for a programme of strategic change.

This was to be supported by a capability and capacity review of the system to evaluate how prepared organisations across the system were for strategic change.

Following this initial phase, Carnall Farrar secured the first part of the second phase of work (phase 2a) which involved working with all the stakeholders to appraise the options for meeting the clinical and financial challenges outlined in the case for change.

The output

- ◆ Identified the key drivers of the deficit and the areas of clinical unsustainability.
- ◆ Produced a case for change.
- ◆ Identified and quantified the opportunities to close the clinical and financial gap; prioritised these opportunities into 16/17 and longer term opportunities.
- ◆ Provided an expert chair for the meetings of system leaders.

- ◆ Conducted a capability and capacity review with seven organisations across the system.
- ◆ Moved from a long list of service model options to a short list.

The outcomes

- ◆ Following both phases of work Devon was left with a shared understanding of the problem, shared ways of working, clinical models and a vision for the options which do not require consultation and a shortlist of options for services which do require consultation.

- ◆ Carnall Farrar secured the next phase of work in Devon, and will be supporting the system until 2017.
- ◆ Supported the creation of a new leadership coalition in Devon with an identified Chief Executive lead.

Seaton Jurassic wins 'Friendly Place' category at FSB awards BUT LOCAL TRADERS DISPUTE CLAIMS THE WHOLE TOWN HAS BENEFITTED

TOP PRIZE: Terry Schofield (FSB) presents district councillor Jenny Brown with the FSB award for 'Best Small Business Friendly Place'

SEATON Jurassic has won a prize for giving the town a new lease of life, but some traders say its role has been exaggerated and that town centre footfall has not increased one bit.

Seaton Jurassic, which is owned by East Devon District Council (EDDC), won the 'Best Small Business Friendly Place' category in the Devon Region of the Federation of Small Businesses (FSB) Council Awards 2016.

Judges said Seaton Jurassic demonstrated the best methods to attract shoppers and tourists to an area to help businesses.

The FSB judges described Seaton Jurassic as a well deserved winner for 2016, saying: "The attraction helped ensure Seaton is now on all visitors' wish lists and has given the entire town a new lease of life."

Councillor Jenny Brown (Lead Councillor – Tourism at EDDC) added: "Seaton Jurassic is an incredible new visitor attraction.

"It is an outstanding focal point, which is bringing increased tourism to Seaton's businesses, as well as offering a unique Jurassic Coast experience and I strongly recommend it to anyone.

"In particular, I would like to thank Alison Hayward, EDDC's Senior Manager for Regeneration and Economic Development, for all her hard work in leading the development of this landmark physical regeneration scheme and to the Devon Wildlife Trust for their ongoing management of the centre.

"EDDC has invested over £1.9m in this project, because it is key to bringing forward wider regeneration and investment, as well as local economic opportunities and increased tourism levels in Seaton and beyond. This is something I'll continue to support in my role with the council."

The award has sparked renewed debate, however. As previously reported in Pulman's View from Seaton & Colyton, many town centre traders have said that Seaton Jurassic has done nothing for town centre footfall.

They are generally supportive of Seaton Jurassic but take issue with the claim that "the entire town" has benefitted.

When told about the award, sub-postmaster and Queen Street trader Kevin Truman said: "It is absolutely fantastic that Seaton has got an award-winning attraction, but I think the amount of rejuvenation has been overstated."

Martin Early of The Recliner Company, also in Queen Street, described the claim that the entire town has benefitted as "complete and utter rubbish".

He added: "I'm all for Seaton Jurassic as such, but they shouldn't make things up.

"Who have they spoken to? Nobody has asked

by Anders Larsson

me if my business has benefitted."

When asked if her business has benefitted, Owl and Pyramid owner Jenny Eagles said: "At this stage, no. But I hope that people who come into Seaton for a particular attraction will have the town centre in their mind the next time they visit."

Paperchain owner Emma Grigg, who trades in Queen Street, commented: "I'm all for Seaton Jurassic, but I can't say I've noticed a rise in profit."

Kerri-Ann Briggs of Imagine Design Create said: "I haven't noticed any change since Seaton Jurassic, negative or positive – but I'm glad to see it is doing well and winning awards.

"It would be nice if more attention was paid to the small self-funded independent businesses though.

"Seaton Jurassic was funded on a large scale and by organisations.

"We should also be looking to give exposure to and support the small businesses of Seaton those run by local families, people who fell in love with Seaton and made it their home.

"Small businesses struggle to afford the advertising and business advice that large scale businesses get.

"It would be great if EDDC could start running regular business support groups, awards for small businesses and look into ways of decreasing costs for small businesses."

Grants on offer

SEATON Town Council is inviting applications for its grant funding scheme for town-based groups and organisations.

Applications are considered twice a year, in January and July. The closing date for applications for the next round is Monday, January 2nd.

Application forms and background information can be obtained from the town council offices at Marshlands and online at www.seaton.gov.uk/Seaton-Town-Council/grant\_funding\_scheme-12070.aspx

Libraries promote reading challenge

AS the results from Devon's Summer Reading Challenge are revealed, the Christmas Mini-Challenge begins, inviting children across the county to read three books over their Christmas holidays.

More than 11,000 children across Devon took part in the annual Summer Reading Challenge, a national initiative that challenges children to read at least six books during the school holidays.

Now children are being encouraged to take up the Christmas Mini-Challenge and read three books of their choice from a local library in return for milestone rewards. The challenge runs online till Friday, January 6th 2017. To take part children are asked to create a profile on the Summer Reading Challenge website and log their reading achievements over the Christmas holidays. Upon completion, children will be awarded with a virtual badge, reward video and a certificate.

Organised by The Reading Agency, both challenges are designed to encourage children and their families to visit their local library and continue reading for enjoyment. Libraries Unlimited deliver the programmes throughout Devon, ensuring libraries across the county help children in their communities to keep up the reading habit during school holidays.

The theme of the Summer Reading Challenge was 'The Big Friendly Read', celebrating 100 years since the birth of the world's favourite storyteller, Roald Dahl, and featured the iconic illustrations of Quentin Blake.

During the build-up to the summer challenge, Devon library staff visited 141 primary schools across the county, promoting the Challenge and helping children to understand the value of their local library and the opportunities available within them.

Ciara Eastell, Chief Executive of Libraries Unlimited, the charity responsible for the running of Devon's libraries, said: "These reading challenges provide us with a fantastic opportunity to reach out to our local communities and see children become engaged with their library from a young age. This year's Summer Reading Challenge was really successful and we are happy to report that over 600 children joined their local library to take part and more than 175,000 children's books were borrowed through the summer holidays."

She continued: "Raising awareness of the Summer Reading Challenge takes a lot of work and I would like to thank schools across Devon; all of our wonderful library staff; our Friends Groups who supported summer events in libraries and the 150 enthusiastic young volunteers who worked a total of 1,422 hours to see the events come together. This is a great example of communities coming together to support children and families to read together over the summer break.

Sue Wilkinson, Chief Executive, The Reading Agency says: "We are delighted that, once again, more than seven hundred thousand children took part in the Summer Reading Challenge at libraries across the UK. This year's figures are slightly lower than last year's, but at a challenging time for library services this is an impressive result. We are looking forward to working with our library partners in 2017 to ensure that the Summer Reading Challenge continues to be an exciting way to keep children reading, via their local library, over the summer holidays."

Ciara Eastell continued: "The Christmas Mini-Challenge is another great chance for children and families to fall back in love with reading. It would be fantastic to see even more children take part in this challenge over the Christmas period. National research shows that children's reading abilities tends to drop over the school holidays, by working together, we are enabling children across Devon to retain the reading habit and to sustain their educational attainment."

Public meeting over Blackdowns Road

THE Blackdowns Road Action Group (BRAG) held an open meeting recently at Cotleigh Village Hall, to update local residents and interested parties concerning Devon County Council's A30 road proposals.

The meeting, which was held on November 25th, saw more concerned residents from Honiton, Monkton, Cotleigh, Stockland, Yarcombe and Clayhaddon pack into the village hall, with organisers of the meeting saying it showed the breadth of opposition to the council's scheme.

Professor Clive Potter, BRAG Chairman, explained the work that BRAG members had been doing in recent weeks, including putting together a submission to the consultation and talking to other stakeholders about their own submissions.

He commented: "BRAG is not alone in its opposition to the scheme. Key stakeholders like the Blackdown Hills AONB Partnership and the National Trust are also very critical of the scale of the scheme proposed and the impact that it would have on this protected landscape."

At the meeting, it was noted that Devon Highways Department are expected to report on the outcome of the consultation in the coming weeks, with DCC's Cabinet Meetings on December 14th likely to consider and agree their preferred route option for the A30 Honiton to Devonshire Inn scheme.

Those present were asked to continue to raise the profile of their objections to the proposed scheme, by writing to both the county council cabinet members and to Neil Parish MP.

The action group also announced that their online petition, asking the Leader of Devon County Council, John Hart, to reconsider the pre-

'Very positive' year at Flamingo Pool

FLAMINGO Pool manager Steve Buxton looked back on "a very positive year" when giving a report at the annual general meeting.

He said that the Aquagym had provided a new income stream and an added bonus that is the new Aquatherapy GP referral scheme.

Mr Buxton thanked Dana Haydon-Sycamore for her hard work in setting up this scheme and those that went on the course to become qualified.

Continued support from Axe Valley Festival made various improvements to the building possible.

Mr Buxton said: "Without their financial input, life would be more difficult.

"There is always something requiring replacement or updating.

"Their help has continued to improve the pool throughout the years and we appreciate everything that they do for the pool."

He also thanked other contributors, the Flamingo Pool committee, his team of staff and all the customers and hoped that next year would bring even bigger and better changes.

Vinetta Cable of Hammetts Accountants presented the accounts, praising the facility and the way in which it has been run.

Flamingo Pool Chairman

Richard Peacock made the observation that Axminster is expanding rapidly, which is very good for the future of the Flamingo Pool.

Looking back on the year, he summarised: "Swimming pools are generally expensive to run and we are fortunate to have been able to hold our heads above water.

"The nearby 3G pitch has improved parking and increased spaces available to customers."

In conclusion Mr Peacock thanked Mr Buxton, the pool staff and the committee for their support and announced that he had taken the decision to retire from the role as chairman, but would remain on the committee.

He was handing over the reins to his successor, Alison Vickers, who he thanked and wished well.

The committee would welcome anyone who would be interested in helping to support this independently financed facility.

More information is available from Mr Buxton on 01297 35800 or info@flamingopool.co.uk

RAFFLE TIME: Axminster Mayor Paul Hayward was hoping for a lucky ticket

Parish Autumn Fayre success

AXMINSTER Parish Autumn Fayre has been hailed a success, raising money and bringing people together.

The fayre was held in the Minster Church on Saturday, November 12th, and church warden Karen Wilkes said: "Members of the Minster and Holy Cross congregations put in a lot of effort to provide delicious cakes and savouries – and people were very generous with their donations of prizes and items to sell.

"We had homemade Christmas cakes for sale, Christmas decorations delicious tea and cakes.

"But the over-riding feeling I had was the time we had to talk to people who don't usually come into church, time to get to know new people to the town, to tell them some of the history of the church and to let the people of the town know we have a new Rector in waiting.

"Yes we raised just over £1,000, but it's not all about the money, it's about getting to know people and for them to get to know us."

As previously reported, the Reverend Clive Sedgewick has been appointed as the new Team Rector of Axe Valley Mission Community.

He will move from Yorkshire and is set to be licensed in the Minster Church on February 28th next year.

Make & Munch

HEALTH and Local Food For Families (HALFF) in Axminster promises hands-on cooking practice for mums, dads and carers with young children at its next Make & Munch session on Wednesday, December 14th.

The session is part of a new series of free HALFF courses in Axminster.

HALFF project co-ordinator Hannah Smart said: "A nutritionist is on hand at each session to offer advice on a variety of topics, so if your little one is a fussy eater, if you are confused about food labelling, or if you would just like more advice about food and cooking for kids generally, this session is perfect for you.

"It's completely free to attend and you'll enjoy a sit down lunch with other parents/carers and children at the end of the session."

The session on December 14th will be held in Masonic Hall, South Street, from 10.30am–12.30pm.

There is no need to book in advance, but more information is available from admin@halff.org.uk or 01297 631782.

Boy's third Book Track award

■ BALRAJ Kannan, 7, has received his third Gold Book Track award from Axminster Library.

To qualify for a Book Track award, youngsters must read 100 books.

Library assistant Matthew Brown, (pictured with Balraj) said: "Balraj is a total star. He has now read 300 books to receive his third Gold Book Track award."

"For this one, he read fact books, and it has been a real pleasure talking about motor racing to Balraj."

St Mary's tops primary schools' reading challenge

ST MARY'S Primary School scooped £100 for having the highest percentage of pupils completing Axminster Library's Summer Reading Challenge.

The £100 cheque was donated by The Rotary Club of Axminster, which has offered to make it an annual prize.

Axminster mayor Cllr Paul Hayward joined happy pupils, library staff and Rotarians for a prize presentation on Thursday, November 3rd.

He said: "I'm delighted and honoured to be here to celebrate another Axminster achievement."

Ten primary schools took part in the challenge.

Rainbows fill boxes for Exeter homeless

MEMBERS of 1st Axminster Rainbows collected hats, gloves, toiletries, sweets and more from friends and family for the homeless in Exeter.

They then gathered to pack the items and managed to fill nine boxes.

Group leader Julie Grabham said: "It was for the Make Someone Smile Appeal, a campaign we saw on Facebook."

"They also made a greetings card to go in each box."

The boxes were delivered to Co-op in Axminster, which acted as a collection point.

Julie added: "It was our way of getting the girls to do some service for the community, which is part of being a member of Girlguiding."

■ EFFORT: The girls are very pleased having packed and wrapped the boxes

Friday evening.

Seaton residents came out in force, enjoying a double bill of entertainment as the switch-on ceremony was followed by the Christmas carnival.

Other attractions on the night included a craft fair in the The Gateway and Seaton Eats Boutique in Windsor Gardens.

The festive feeling continued the following day with Seaton's traditional Christmas Artisan Market, also in Windsor Gardens.

Calls for Seaton Christmas Carnival to be annual event

SEATON'S Christmas Carnival was such a success that there are calls to make it a permanent fixture.

Last Friday's event was only held as a replacement for the traditional carnival, which was cancelled because of bad weather in September.

The smaller scale Christmas Carnival featured about 25 entries and carnival committee

by Anders Larsson
anders@viewnews.co.uk

chairman June Millman said: "We have been getting messages and calls from people saying how good it was, and asking if we can make it an annual event."

She wouldn't give any promises, saying the matter will be discussed by the committee and everybody else involved.

The collection count hadn't been completed at the time of going to press, but stood at around £800 on Monday morning.

June said: "I was surprised at the number of people who came out."

"A big thank you to the people of Seaton and everybody else who helped to make it such a good evening."

Favourites go festive for the Honiton Christmas Carnival

by Peter Hodges
peter@viewnews.co.uk

HUNDREDS braved the cold and lined the streets as Honiton was given a festive extravaganza at the annual Christmas Carnival.

Carnival favourites Sid Vale Carnival Club and Nunsford Nutters took their phenomenal floats from earlier this year and gave them an added Christmas twist.

The carnival was led through the town by Father Christmas and his band of trusty reindeer, much to the delight of the watching youngsters. Following St Nick was Honiton's mayor, Cllr Caroline Kolek and her husband Stephen.

Amigos CC and Little Starz CC, both based in Honiton, impressed with their Christmas takes on their previous floats.

CLOCKWISE from above:

- Sid Vale Carnival Club brought festive cheer to the evening
- Looping the Loop was pulled through the town by reindeer
- Father Christmas led the carnival through the town
- Honiton's majorettes swapped their usual outfits for something warmer and more 'Christmassy'
- Exeter Starlites showed off some impressive moves to the watching crowds
- Mayor of Honiton Cllr Caroline Kolek and her husband Stephen walked the procession through the town

Autumn produce show

WHITFORD: The Whitford Produce Association held its annual Autumn Show in Whitford Village Hall on Saturday, November 12th.

Entries were down slightly although the judges were full of praise for the exhibits.

Chris Loud continued his winning streak following the Beer Autumn show and won four classes and one class joint with John Lang for chrysanthemums, judged by Derek Hurford.

Cookery judge Monica Collins was impressed with the amount of entries and the standard achieved. Photography section entries were up this year.

The children's entries were full of imagination and Jasmine James, the youngest competitor, won her great-grandmother's cup.

The afternoon was rounded off by the presentation of awards and the auction where prizewinning exhibits were sold at bargain prices.

The organisers would like to thank everyone who supported the show.

Fayre donations presented at Chardstock pub

CHARDSTOCK Street Fayre generated a total of £2,500 for local causes this year, despite dreadful weather on the day.

The presentation evening was held on Saturday, November 12th at The George Inn, Chardstock.

The main beneficiaries were Devon Freewheelers (Andy and Beth Taylor), British Heart Foundation (Chris West) Chardstock Christmas Tree and Children's Presents (Lynn Vyse), Chardstock Park Trust (Matthew Humphreys), The Project, (Ceri and Grant) Friends of St Andrews Church (Mike Brooksbank), Horseshoes and Handprints (Desi Fradgley), Chardstock Historical Records Group (David Everett), Chard Rugby Club Mini and Junior Section (Tara Smillie), Millwey Rise Youth Football Club (Kayla Froom and Sophie Alexander-Mitchell) and Chardstock Newsletter (Jonathan Milford).

Ella Dare, who designed the cover image for this year's Street Fayre programme, assisted the chairman of Chardstock Street Fayre, Michelle Reeve, in presenting the cheques.

Street fayre spokesperson Graham Vyse said: "The team wishes to thank The Muzax for providing excellent live music and Chris and Ann West at The George Inn for preparing a delicious buffet."

Preschoolers' remembrance

MUSBURY: Children from Musbury Moles Pre-School marked remembrance by making their own poppies and learning why it's important to remember those that fought for the country.

The children also observed a two minutes' silence at 11am on Armistice Day which staff said was quite an achievement for the youngsters.

The pre-school will be taking on new children from January 10th.

Residential home graded 'outstanding'

MUSBURY: Barley Close Residential Home has celebrated a double triumph.

The home, which specialises in caring for people with severe learning disabilities, has been graded Outstanding by The Care Quality Commission, which is the highest grading available.

In addition, Barley Close also clinched the Team of the Year title in the internal, but UK-wide, Voyage Care Excellence Awards.

Manager Julie Jinks (shown holding certificate), who has 25 staff members (some also pictured), said: "The work, passion and care have been validated by these recognitions."

Toilet at Combe Raleigh church after more than 600 years

COMBE Raleigh churchgoers were delighted to see the opening of a new composting toilet at the church recently.

When St Nicholas' Church was built more than 600 years ago, the provision of a toilet was probably the last thing the villagers would have thought to include.

A spokesperson for the church said: "Customs and personal habits were very different then – there were plenty of trees and bushes for privacy.

"These days, however, we view things from a very different perspective and when, in the Parish Plan of 2010 the provision of a church toilet was felt to be highly desirable, the proposal was unanimously accepted.

"There have been many occasions when those who have travelled considerable distances for weddings, funerals, concerts and other events have asked, 'Where is the toilet?'"

"Now we can tell them, 'In the building behind the church'."

Although the village had organised some fundraising events in order to provide this much-needed facility, the major contributor to the project was Viridor Credits with a grant of more than £6,000.

Viridor Credits is heavily involved in helping to provide local amenities and the residents of Combe Raleigh are hugely grateful to them for their input in the project.

Microscopic engraving at art society

AXMINSTER ART SOCIETY: A demonstration with a decided difference!

Graham Short, an engraver from Birmingham, gave a fascinating presentation showing how he does his amazing engravings and laced it with stories about people he has met during a highly coloured life.

He began his career as an apprentice creating embossed stationery and later, working for himself, amassed a clientele that included Harrods, Fortnum and Mason and, finally, Buckingham Palace, for whom he still does stationery for all the royal events including weddings.

However, his talent now lies in creating microscopic engravings on tiny gold pins or on equally small presentation objects.

To do this, he works through a microscope three nights a week from 1am to 5am when traffic noise is at a minimum and slows his heart beat down to 20 beats a minute.

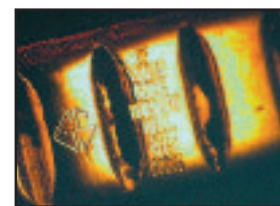

He then makes a single mark between each heart beat with his arm braced with a leather strap to keep it as steady as possible.

He can only finish up to three letters a night so each piece can take up to six months to complete.

As well as written work including the first chapter of The Koran, written in Arabic, he has also created an image of the Queen on a tiny pellet of gold inside the eye of a needle.

Galleries exhibited his work in a special cabinet allowing the magnification needed to view it and it sells for sums of up to over a million pounds.

■ GRAHAM made this engraving between two milled edges on the side of a coin

Graham did point out, however, that as his work is not sold en masse, the gallery can take up to 60 per cent with his agent then taking a further 40 per cent and the cabinet maker also having to be paid.

Graham has met several famous people including a day with spoon-bender Uri Geller.

He also entertained guests at a dinner given by singer-songwriter Ronan Keating in his Irish castle and put on the amazing gold-embroidered jacket that he wore there.

It is really difficult to take in the complexities of Graham's work or to fully understand the physical strain he puts on himself although he is very fit, swimming 1500metres a week.

Enough to say he is an amazing artist and an equally amazing human being.

The next meeting will be the society's AGM to be held in the United Reformed Church Hall tomorrow (December 7th).

Horticultural society seeks new members

AXMINSTER & DISTRICT HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY: ONE of Axminster's oldest societies has started a member recruitment campaign, and will be back at Axe Vale Festival next year.

Axminster & District Horticultural Society was founded in 1865 as Axminster Cottage Society, with an aim to encourage 'good gardening, spade and fork husbandry'.

In its heyday the society had more than 400 members, but the number was so low this year that it could not find enough people to prepare and man its show marquee at Axe Vale Festival.

Making the decision to pull out of the festival was a massive blow, but members rallied to pump new life into Axminster & District Horticultural Society.

A decision to move monthly meetings from daytime to evenings was taken to attract people who work in the day.

Members have also been busy leafleting areas of the town in an attempt to boost numbers.

Meetings are on the third Thursday of the month and include talks on a variety of subjects.

The programme for 2017 starts on Thursday, January 19th at 7.30pm in the United Reformed Church, with a talk by Terry Underhill called 'From the Mountains to the Garden'.

Anyone interested in joining the society can go to a meeting or phone Jayne on 01297 598 292, David on 01297 32196 or John on 01297 35865.

■ RECRUITING: Axminster & District Horticultural Society secretary Jayne Dymond and show competition organiser David Johnson

SEATON: FOR an older generation, brought up in an era before computer games, Matchbox toys, along with Dinky toys, Meccano and Hornby train sets, were a firm favourite. Many a childhood imagination has been stimulated by playing with a collection of their cars and other models.

So members of Seaton and District Proboscis Club were fascinated to hear the inside story of Lesney Products Ltd, the creator and producer of Matchbox toys, from one of their very own members, Bert Sherman, pictured, who had been closely associated with the company.

In their heyday in the 1950s and 60s the company was producing one million of the highly detailed models each day.

Sadly, the company was to suffer the fate of much of Britain's manufacturing industry and go out of business in 1982 before being sold to the Chinese. They are now owned by Mattel Inc with production much scaled back.

Mr Sherman ran Alexander Precision, a manufacturer of die-sinking tools, which supplied the dies from which the models were made.

Prior to that, he had been production manager of Setright Registers, which had been responsible for inventing and producing the first ticket issuing machines, widely used on London Transport buses and by many other bus companies around the world, and he brought along one of the last ticketing machines to show members.

Keith West gave a vote of thanks to our speaker on behalf of a very appreciative audience for a fascinating talk.

The club welcomes new members. For more information please contact Steve on 01297 21872 or visit www.seatonproboscis.co.uk

Music hall memories at Honiton's Beehive

HONITON: MEMBERS of Honiton U3A enjoyed a very lively and entertaining meeting at The Beehive in November when speaker and fellow member Stuart Raine gave his talk 'The Good Old Days - A History of Music Hall'.

Stuart's interest in music hall began as a boy when his family were entertained by his Auntie Edie, a cinema pianist.

The origins of music hall began in the 19th century city taverns and supper houses where songs with intriguing titles such as 'The Ratcheters Daughter' were performed. Sadly no one took any notice as the 'audience' were too busy eating and drinking!

As popularity grew so did the building of many famous music halls such as The Empire, The Alhambra, The Oxford, The Glasgow Palace Empire.

Songs ranged from funny to bawdy, sing-a-long to social comment and titles like 'My Old Dutch', 'Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-ay' and 'If It Wasn't For The Houses In Between' were popular.

It was the advent of radio, television and cinema that saw the demise of Music Hall Theatre. But to give us a reminder of 'The Good Old Days' Stuart played a YouTube video of Florrie Ford singing some of her most famous songs to which the audience at The Beehive heartily sang along to.

The U3A chairman thanked Stuart for a very enjoyable talk and reminded members that there was no meeting at The Beehive in December as it will be the members' Christmas Social at The Mackerness Hall (December 7th - ticket only).

'Cinderella' production on par with the professionals

AUDIENCES at Colyton Town Hall were treated to a simply stunning production of Ben Crocker's 'Cinderella' last week, as the town's theatre group presented a show which was of such high quality, it belied its amateur status.

The classic pantomime marked Emily Thomas' directorial debut and, if this first foray is anything to go by, the future is looking very bright for further theatrical presentations in the town.

Debbie Meakin led the cast with a graceful performance as the titular heroine, whose dream to attend the ball at the palace is facilitated by her Fairy Godmother, played with verve by Sue Whitell.

The masterful Prince Charming (Steph Letten) was ready to sweep her off her feet and the couple made an attractive principal pairing as they sang and danced with polish and poise.

They were ably supported by Bev Reed as a cheeky yet suave Dandini, and Stephen Knight as the beloved Buttons, whose Eric Morcombe-style delivery was absolutely stupendous. Knight had the audience falling about with laughter on more than one occasion and, when combined with the utterly fabulous Ugly Sisters (Tish Wells and Natalie McNeill), the resulting sidesplitting slapstick was some of the best I've seen on the non-professional stage.

Rude, crude and yet thoroughly engaging, the gruesome girls brought the house down with their every entrance, but were kept in line by their malicious Mummy (Cynthia Bell), whose attempts to thwart Cinderella's party plans were met with the obligatory raucous booing and hissing from the sold-out auditorium.

Some pint-sized palace guards and an exuberant chorus, made up of some talented young performers and spritely mature stage stalwarts, ensured the show bounced along with colour and energy, but special mention must go to Alexander Wall, whose cute and captivating performance as Mouse ensured the fairy-tale had the right amount of magic.

Crocker's script provided the perfect mix of hilarious innuendo and simple gags, so it appealed to all and, when performed by such a wonderful cast, provided a perfect evening of entertainment. I can honestly say, it's one of the best amateur pantomimes I've ever seen.

Why so few shops with disabled access?

■ LIKE Anne ('Charity card shop access' letter, November 22nd), I'm wheelchair-bound in and out of my home, but lucky enough to also have a mobility 'buggy'.

I love my independence... but! I can't visit any shops in Seaton on the buggy, only Tesco's. Well done, Tesco.

Even if my husband pushes me around in my smallest wheelchair no shops have enough distance between rails, etc, and most have annoying objects on corners or middles of shops.

Years ago, when more able-bodied with a stick or frame, nowhere was 'out of bounds'. However, these same local shops are now leaving me sitting outside (in all weathers) while my poor husband goes inside to get my purchases.

It really does make one feel totally insignificant. Why is this? With just a little thought for others less mobile, our money can be spent and our own pleasure satisfied. Please rethink, shop owners!

P.S. This also applies to churches.

Remember why the sacrifice was made

■ AT THIS solemn and thoughtful time of year we should be aware of why so many gave their lives.

As the (alleged) self-induced democratic nightmare of 2016 spirals further into chaos shows that we have forgotten what this sacrifice was for.

Liberty, humanitarian law, education, freedom of movement, welfare, trading with our neighbours, health and safety issues, infrastructure and environmental awareness; in other words, a hopeful future civilised continent for their children and future generations to foster closer integration is why they gave their lives. No More War in Europe.

Liberalism is poorly equipped to defend itself in today's world of extreme left or right populist nationalism.

The public is influenced by right wing papers: the Daily Mail, Daily Express, Telegraph and Sun spreads its propaganda across every social group.

How can it be that very rich, white, privileged politicians say they represent the anti establishment when their method of popularity is to infiltrate parliaments for personal financial gain and gain X Factor style fame by sabotaging and degrading parliament's influence through peddling lies and exploiting easily whipped up hostility against foreigners, humans that try to escape horrifically brutal conflicts or just seek a better life contributing hugely to our economy.

Until June 23rd 2016 I loved our British values of kindness and fair treatment of people of any race, religion, gender, or orientation.

It is our diversity of cultures that has enhanced Britain's standing in a liberal world. Why did we turn so nasty overnight?

Can it be right that any parent would deliberately take away their children's freedoms to work, study, live, marry and have children in continental Europe, because since 1975 many, many thousands have done just that. Is it also right that children are told don't bother with education or becoming expert at anything because today's populist democracy doesn't want anyone to be a real expert or listen to anyone that is.

We are now a shallow unstable populist society. Sadly, ignorance has won, so as a nation we have forgotten our fallen hero ancestors and snubbed their intended legacy.

NIBBY DAVID,
Seaton

Too much traffic to feel safe to shop

■ THE reason a lot of people do not shop in Axminster is because there is too much traffic passing through, and one does not feel safe walking on the uneven pavements.

Several shops have closed, but these are mainly non-essential galleries or similar premises.

The new car park has added another hazard for pedestrians when walking past it.

Axminster needs shops other than charity shops and 'tat', and I do not believe that people stopped buying because the nation voted to leave the European Union.

An NHS verse

■ IN ANSWER to the queries raised on my 'thoughts' of how the NHS will be funded in the not to distant future, I offer the following:

The National 'Wealth' Service

Why believe in political promise On the NHS or Community Care? As more and more of us grow older It seems to me there's less to share.

It's harder now to see a doctor. They're closing local A & Es. Our hospitals are stripped of beds Replaced by Care in the Community.

But we're short of homes and carers Day by day their numbers dropping. And unless someone can fix it They'll be even more bed blocking.

In the not too distant future The NHS could cease to work. And in their thoughts to find an answer I'm certain private health schemes lurk.

Though if Brexit means Brexit There's that large written promise Of a billion pounds for the NHS Inscribed on the Brexit bus by Boris.

DEREK STURCH,
Honiton

■ THE Christmas meal will be on many people's minds as the festival draws near. It's understandable, with all the other costs at this time, that 'bargain' supermarket turkeys and other poultry will be a lower-cost attraction.

But many shoppers will not know where the cost of cheaper poultry is borne. At this time of year, sheds the size of aircraft hangars will be where turkeys and chickens in their thousands will be struggling for space to move.

Often lame, having been fattened unnaturally fast to satisfy the Christmas market, these birds will never have seen a blade of grass or know fresh air in their entire miserable lives.

Whether raised in the UK or from abroad, the secrecy in the intensive poultry industry means that conditions are only ever revealed by secret filming by animal welfare campaigners.

There are, of course, alternatives for those who want a welfare-friendly Christmas meal, e.g. supermarket free-range poultry, or that with the RSPCA Freedom Foods sticker.

But with good butchers and local farmers' markets across East Devon, the customer wanting to know will be told precisely where their turkey or chicken came from, and have peace of mind about what they have on their table for this important meal. # Give your advertising an unfair advantage. Run some press ads.

The effectiveness consultancy Benchmarking have analysed what happens when companies include press advertising in their media mix.

They looked at 500 econometric models, across a five-year period and discovered that adding newspapers dramatically increases the return on investment of other media.

Over half were service companies who saw the effectiveness of their TV advertising double, ROI of their overall campaigns treble and their online digital display enjoy a four-fold increase.

Individual categories also saw impressive results.

Automotive campaigns clocked a 70% increase. In travel, effectiveness trebled. In retail it leapt by 2.8 times. And most remarkable of all, in the financial category, Benchmarking uncovered an increase of 5.7 times.

So, whatever business you are in, you should be in the newspapers.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT AT CHRISTMAS

EVERYONE likes to indulge a little Christmas, but a treat for us can be bad news for our pets.

Chocolate contains a substance called Theobromine which is toxic to dogs and can cause symptoms including vomiting, diarrhoea, hypersalivation and hyperactivity. In more severe cases a high temperature, irregular heart rhythm, kidney failure, convulsions and even death.

Dark chocolate and cocoa contain particularly high concentrations of Theobromine so can be especially toxic.

Currants, Grapes, Raisins and Sultanas can also be poisonous, even in small quantities, and can cause vomiting, diarrhoea and kidney failure.

So – please make sure all those Christmas cakes, puddings and mince pies are kept out of reach of your dog and take particular care of chocolates under the tree !

If you think your dog has eaten any of these things, please contact your vet as soon as possible – the quicker we can treat these animals the less chance of severe or long-term effects.

We hope you and your pets have a happy and safe Christmas.

East Devon Branch of Cats Protection

YOUR LOCAL BRANCH OF CATS PROTECTION

THE East Devon Branch of Cats Protection covers a very wide area of Devon, totaling about 400 square miles.

We take in and re-home cats and kittens that are strays or are unwanted and/or abandoned.

We have several foster homes where the cats are cared for and prepared for re-homing.

We have a shop in Sidmouth where you can purchase seasonal gifts and cards and calendars as well as the usual items of clothing and bric-a-brac.

One of the many advantages of adopting a cat from Cats Protection is that it will be microchipped.

Every day there are reports of cats going missing and others being found. Fortunately, many of these have been microchipped and are quickly reunited with their families but many have not been chipped. How do we reunite these poor cats with their owners? Of course it is important that someone finding a stray cat or one that has been injured gets it scanned for a chip. Your local vet should be willing to do this. If a chip is present it is normally quick and easy to locate the cat's family, although it is important that the contact details are up to date.

If you have a cat or kitten or are bringing one into your home this Christmas, please make sure it is microchipped.

Coombefield Veterinary Hospital

WE would like to wish everyone a very safe and Merry Christmas from all the staff at Coombefield Veterinary Hospital.

At this time of year we often find ourselves dealing with common festive emergencies. Please be careful during this time to ensure your Christmas goes without a trip to the vets.

Christmas pudding and cake quite often contain a high quantity of raisins, currants and sultanas which can be highly toxic to dogs. While some individual dogs may show no obvious clinical signs after ingestion it can take as little as 8 raisins to cause severe renal failure.

It may also go without saying, but alcohol and pets don't mix. Alcohol toxicity can cause a dangerous drop in your pet's blood sugar levels, blood pressure and body temperature. Seasonally also watch out for antifreeze even small spills and empty bottles and cause lethal poisoning, especially in cats who are attracted to its sweet taste. Within 30 minutes animals can be vomiting and cause irreversible damage to kidneys usually resulting in euthanasia.

If you notice your pet has consumed any of your Christmas goodies please contact the hospital immediately on 01297 630500.

It's not worth the risk... THINK! DON'T DRINK AND DRIVE

The festive season is now upon us and with it comes work nights out and an opportunity to catch up with friends and family. But for all too many, it's tempting to ruin the celebrations by driving home after a couple of drinks.

IN THE last 50 years road casualties caused by drink driving have fallen dramatically, but in 2014, there were still 240 deaths due to drink driving – accounting for 14% of all road fatalities. By drinking and driving, you risk your life, those of your passengers and others on the road.

Any amount of alcohol affects your ability to drive.

THE LAW

There are strict alcohol limits for UK drivers: In England, Wales and Northern Ireland, the legal alcohol limit for drivers is:

- 35 microgrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of breath
- 80 milligrammes of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood
- 107 milligrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of urine

In Scotland (from 5 December 2014) the legal alcohol limit for drivers is lower at:

- 22 microgrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of breath
- 50 milligrammes of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood
- 67 milligrammes of alcohol per 100 millilitres of urine.

However it is not possible to say how much alcohol you can drink and stay below the limit. The way alcohol affects you depends on:

- your weight, age, sex and metabolism (the rate your body uses energy)
- the type and amount of alcohol you're drinking
- what you've eaten recently
- your stress levels at the time

So if you're driving, it's better to have none for the road.

DRINK DRIVING

- Don't drink and drive, the only safe limit is none.
- You can still be over the limit the morning after.
- Drink and drug driving does cost lives.
- Get caught drink driving and you will be treated like any other criminal.
- A drink driving conviction will stay on your licence for 11 years.
- Program a phone number for a licensed taxi company into your mobile phone before you go out.
- If you are caught drink driving you will be required to attend court where you could face a fine, be banned from driving or imprisoned.

THE CONSEQUENCES

There are strict penalties - if you are convicted of drink driving, including:

- A minimum 12 month driving ban
- A criminal record
- A hefty fine
- An endorsement on your license for 11 years

However, this list does not reflect the every-day consequences of being caught drink driving which can include:

- Increase in car insurance costs
- Job loss
- Trouble getting in to countries like the USA
- The shame of having a criminal record
- Loss of independence

The Institute of Advanced Motorists calculate that a drink drive conviction could cost between £20,000 - £50,000 as a result of fines, solicitors fees, increase in car insurance and loss of job.

YOU DRINK YOU DRIVE YOU LOSE

THINK! Advice

Beware the morning after

You could be over the legal limit many hours after your last drink, even if it's the 'morning after'. Sleep, coffee and cold showers don't help to sober you up - time is the only way to get alcohol out of your system.

There is no excuse for drink driving

"I can handle my drink."

Alcohol affects everybody's driving for the worse. It creates a feeling of overconfidence, makes judging distance and speed more difficult and slows your reactions so it takes longer to stop

"I'm only going down the road."

A large proportion of all drink drive crashes occur within three miles of the start of the journey.

If you're planning to drink alcohol, plan how to get home without driving

Options include agreeing on a designated driver, saving a taxi number to your phone, or finding out about public transport routes and times before you go out.

Don't offer an alcoholic drink to someone you know is planning to drive

Even if you're not driving, you can help reduce the number of people who are killed and injured every year by drink driving.

Don't accept a lift from a driver you know has drunk alcohol

COUNTRY ROADS

Brake before the bend, not on it

59% of all fatalities occur on country roads. These roads often have sharp bends and blind bends which can hide unexpected hazards. Stay in control and give yourself time to react because you never know what's around the corner. THINK! Brake before the bend, not on it.

THE FACTS:

- 59% of all fatalities occur on country roads
- Three people die each day on average on country roads
- The number of people killed on country roads is nearly 10 times higher than on motorways
- In 2015, 10,307 people were killed or seriously injured on country roads in Great Britain

THINK! Advice

- ✓ The best drivers read the road ahead and anticipate potential hazards. Look out for upcoming bends, hidden dips, blind summits and concealed entrances
- ✓ Country roads often have sharp bends. To stay in control and give yourself time to react to unexpected hazards, brake before the bend, not in it
- ✓ Overgrown verges, bushes and trees on country roads can block your view and potentially obscure an oncoming hazard. Always drive at a speed which will allow you to stop in the distance you can see to be clear (double that on a single track road). Allow more time to stop on wet or slippery surfaces
- ✓ The speed limit is a limit not a target. The national speed limit on single carriage roads is 60mph, but there will be times you need to drive under that in order to drive correctly for the conditions. In fact most people do on these roads – the average free flow speed is 48mph

- ✓ If you get stuck behind a slow moving vehicle be patient. Dips in roads, bends and other junctions joining your road often hide oncoming vehicles, so unless it's absolutely safe, don't overtake
- ✓ If passing more vulnerable road users such as horse riders, cyclists and walkers, pass wide and slow
- ✓ Even if you're familiar with a country road, never take it for granted as the conditions can be different every time

CYCLING

The numbers of people choosing to cycle for fun, fitness or to get to work has increased by more than a quarter in twenty years and an incredible 3.2 billion miles are cycled on our roads every year.

Riding a bike is safe – since 2010 the number of cyclist killed on our roads has fallen to its lowest level on record. However, 3,337 cyclist were killed or seriously injured on our roads in 2015 which is why THINK! has launched its latest cycling campaign.

The aim of the campaign is to raise cyclists' awareness of the dangers of lorries turning left – the area where a third of collisions between cyclists and lorries happen. In the last 5 years, 104 cyclists have been killed in accidents involving an HGV (heavy goods vehicle). This accounts for nearly 20% of all cycling fatalities.

We want to remind cyclists to 'hang back' at junctions to avoid getting caught between a lorry and left hand turn.

THINK! has also teamed up with the Freight Transport Association to remind HGV drivers to look out for cyclists.

HORSES

Pass horses wide and slow

Horses are large powerful animals but they can easily panic and bolt if startled. The consequences to drivers, their car, the horse and its rider can be horrendous. By following some basic advice, drivers and riders can help avoid accidents involving horses on the road.

THE FACTS:

- 11 horse riders were killed and 116 seriously injured in collisions with motor vehicles, in the five years to 2015
- Horses can weigh more than half a tonne – they are easily scared by noise and may panic around fast-moving vehicles

THINK! Advice

ADVICE FOR MOTORISTS:

- ✓ Slow down and be ready to stop if necessary
- ✓ Look out for riders' signals to slow down or stop
- ✓ Watch out for sudden movements, horses can be easily frightened and unpredictable
- ✓ Don't sound your horn or rev your engine
- ✓ Pass wide and slow when overtaking; giving the horse plenty of room. Don't accelerate rapidly once you have passed them
- ✓ On roundabouts, horse riders will keep to the left within the roundabout until reaching their exit, when they will signal left. They will normally signal right only when approaching exits they don't intend to use

ADVICE FOR HORSE RIDERS:

- ✓ Always display fluorescent/reflective clothing on both horse and rider whatever the weather or light conditions
- ✓ If at all avoidable, don't ride in failing light, fog or darkness. Avoid icy or snowy roads
- ✓ If riding a horse that is not used to roads, ask a rider with a horse who is experienced and calm to accompany you
- ✓ Never take a mounted group of more than eight horses on the road
- ✓ If riding two abreast, move into single file as soon as it is safe for the motorist to overtake. Don't ride more than two abreast on the road
- ✓ Always cross major crossings in a group, rather than trickling across one by one
- ✓ Leave details of your intended route and estimated time of return with a responsible person

Have yourself a jazzy little Christmas

AN IMPRESSIVE array of top UK talent pays tribute to the great Benny Goodman at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, December 16th. Known as 'the King of Swing', Goodman is remembered in the popular imagination for his big band hits, but this tribute evening focuses on his small groups which featured Goodman on clarinet, Lionel Hampton on vibraphone, Charlie Christian on guitar and Teddy Wilson on piano. For this heart-warming trip down musical memory lane, Goodman's small group will be recreated by Julian Marc Stringle, Roger Beaujolais, Dominic Ashworth with the Craig Milverton Trio.

Julian Stringle is widely regarded as the UK's top clarinet player, having won the UK Jazz Award for clarinet three times. Like Goodman himself, Stringle started playing clarinet from a young age, and made his TV debut with Acker Bilk when he was just 14, and has since played with many top bands, from John Dankworth to The Spice Girls. Roger Beaujolais started playing vibraphone at 24, and his first band was the Chevalier Brothers with Ray Gelato with whom he played in over 15 countries on 3 continents as well as the major jazz festivals in Europe. Dominic Ashworth is a member of Digby Fairweather's Half Dozen and Julian Marc Stringle's Dream Band. Craig Milverton has a remarkable ability to mimic the styles of all the great jazz pianists. On this occasion he will 'be' Teddy Wilson, and he will be supported by the rest of his trio, featuring Al Swainger on bass and Nick Milward on drums.

The concert promises to be a wonderful 'curtain raiser' to the festive season - to make a real evening of it, the Arts Centre offers a popular pre-show supper for an additional £13 (these are limited and must be booked in advance). To book tickets and suppers please ring the Box Office on 01460 54973.

Come and sing carols

ONCE again Seaton Methodist Church is hosting Come and Sing Carols as it was a great success last year.

While there will be two short pieces sung by a small singing group, two readings and a light-hearted piece, most of the evening centres on audience participation in singing ten carols.

There will be refreshments at the end.

Organist is David House.

So come along and join in at Seaton Methodist Church on Wednesday, December 14th at 7pm.

Magical moments and festive fun this Christmas

Dickensian daftness from Living Spit

WE ALL know about Ebenezer Scrooge. We've all seen the films. But who's the best Scrooge of all time? Meet Howard Coggins, who now takes on the performance of his life as Scrooge.

And he's brought Stu McLoughlin along for the ride to dress up, sing, dance and generally act like a complete idiot whilst playing ALL the other parts.

With silly songs, pitiful puppetry and more Dickensian daftness than you can shake a selection box at, Living Spit's A Christmas Carol is a feast of festive foolery!

Living Spit present their adaptation of the Charles Dickens classic this Saturday, December 10th at 8pm. Tickets are £12 and £10 concessions, available by calling 01297 442138 or visit the website at www.marinetheatre.com

The Italian Connection

Axminster and Yeovil choirs reunite for 'Music for the season of Christmas'

FOLLOWING highly successful collaborations during the previous two years, Axminster and Yeovil Chamber Choirs will be reuniting to perform a concert entitled "The Italian Connection – Music for the season of Christmas" at the beginning of December.

In all, over 40 local singers will take part in the concerts, which will be conducted by Peter Parshall who is director of both groups.

"This will be the third occasion on which the choirs have combined and I'm not sure at what stage these performances become a tradition!" says Peter. "Having the opportunity to combine two small chamber ensembles, however, enables us to tackle music in up to eight voice parts, which means that we can bring some rarely-heard gems of the repertoire to local audiences."

Music by Palestrina, Victoria, Marenzio, Arcadelt and Mouton, amongst others, will feature during the concerts, which take place at 3.00pm on Sunday, December 11th in St Mary's Church (The Minster), Axminster EX13 5AQ, and at 7.30pm on Wednesday, December 14th in Holy Trinity Church, Lysander Road, Yeovil BA20 2BU.

Tickets cost £10 (to include refreshments), and are available on the door at both venues.

For more details on the Axminster Choir email axminsterchamberchoir@gmail.com or visit the website at www.axminsterchamberchoir.com, and for more details on Yeovil Choir email yeovilchamberchoir@hotmail.com or visit www.yeovilchamberchoir.org

Celebrate Christmas with the Ottery St Mary Silver Band

OTTERY ST MARY Silver Band's ever-popular Christmas concert takes place on Friday, December 16th this year. Everyone is being encouraged to buy their tickets early to avoid disappointment as the concert has sold out in every recent year.

The entertainment will be provided by both of Ottery's bands who will be performing a range of Christmas music.

Brass class, the band's training band which features some of the younger (in terms of how long they have been playing and not necessarily age!) players have their own slot in the performance. Memories of childhood will be rekindled by a performance of Michael Jackson's 1972 hit "Rockin Robin" or, for those concert-goers with a slightly earlier childhood, "Frosty the Snowman" from 1950. Fans of "The Sound of Music" (and isn't everyone?) might like to reflect during the performance of "Little Drummer Boy" that it was recorded by the Trapp Family Singers in 1951.

As well as Christmas music, the Silver Band will be marking what would have been Freddie Mercury's 70th year with a selection of some of Queen's greatest hits which will have you clapping and stamping along with the band. The Christmas music ranges from the 18th century with Vivaldi's "Winter" up to the present day with "Joy, Peace and Happiness" which gives each section of the band a chance to show off their talents. The traditional Christmas favourites have not been forgotten and will include "Jingle Bells" and "The Twelve Days of Christmas"; singing along, though not obligatory, will be encouraged!

Tickets are available from Ross on 01404 813222 or from the Ottery St Mary branch of Gilbert Stephens. Ticket are £6.00 (children under 16 are free) and the concert is in The Institute, Ottery St Mary, on Friday, December 16th, starting at 7.45pm.

Magical moments and festive fun this Christmas

Christmas wrapped up

CHRISTMAS shopping doesn't have to be stressful! The annual Christmas Collection exhibition at Ilminster Arts Centre makes life very easy with a fantastic selection of locally crafted items that make perfect gifts for friends and family. This year's 'collection' includes, among other goodies, practical and decorative ceramics by Sue Williams, and Sarah & Mike Crook, wonderfully cosy Shetland wool scarves and throws from Rural Rustic (formerly Dommett Hill Farm), colourful felt bags and bowls by Natasha Smart, wooden pens by Andy Millar, super soft goatskins from Bere Marsh Farm, and pretty silver jewellery from Jill Thompson, and Mike Coleridge.

This year there are also some unusual decorative pieces by The Little Paper People featuring kirigami paper motifs and vintage electrical components - for the man who has everything! Come along and enjoy an unhurried shopping experience, and then sit back and relax over coffee and cake in the café afterwards. The exhibition runs until December 23rd, and is opening Monday to Friday 9.30am-4.30pm, and Saturdays 9.30am-2.30pm. Admission is free.

Choral Society's Christmas Carol Concert

FOLLOWING a rousing performance of Handel's Alexander's Feast before a capacity audience in the minster in early November, it was straight back into rehearsals for members of the Axminster and District Choral Society, as they prepare for their forthcoming Christmas Carol Concert.

Director of Music Peter Parshall promises a traditional family event with opportunities for the audience to join in the singing of well-known carols to include Hark the Herald and O Come all ye Faithful. The large four part choir will also sing two choruses from Handel's Messiah: "And The Glory of the Lord" and "For unto us a Child is Born". There will be arrangements of Jingle Bells and Deck the Halls. The choir of St Mary's RC School, Axminster will perform We're walking in the air from "The Snowman". The school strings and wind groups will also contribute with Jingle Bells and The First Nowell. Additional features will be an item with Peter Lee-Cox on the organ and the full choir singing John Rutter's beautiful "Star Carol."

The concert will take place on Saturday, December 17th at the Minster, Axminster 7pm. Tickets are available from Archway Books, Church Street, Axminster or phone 01404 881838 adults £10, children £5, under 8 - free. Family tickets at reduced price.

Step back in time for a very Victorian Christmas in Exmouth

CHRISTMAS is coming to World of Country Life! Come along and visit Santa - and a whole lot more! You will ride Santa's Deer Train Safari Special to hand feed the red deer (Santa's back-up herd!)

Then step back in time and wander along the traditional Victorian Christmas street, beautifully lit in a real cosy festive theme. Enjoy roast chestnuts, mince pies and join in with some cheery Christmas carol singing before meeting Santa in his cottage workshop.

Have a go at making traditional Christmas crafts - and don't forget to meet the animals in their festive petting pen before you leave!

For full details and to secure your place visit www.worldofcountrylife.co.uk. This is a ticket only event, and tickets are on sale now.

Folk's odd couple serve-up a feast of fun

BELSHAZZAR'S Feast start with traditional English music, add a touch of classical and jazz, throw in a bit of pop and music hall, and top it off with wry humour for a unique live experience that has made them one of the most popular duos in folk music. They take to the road this November and December with their much-loved seasonal show.

Now in their twenty-first year together, Paul Sartin and Paul Hutchinson of Belshazzar's Feast bring a wealth of talent to the stage.

Paul Sartin was a member of the multi-BBC Radio 2 Award-winning big band Bellowhead, and of Faustus. Consultant and Director of the Andover Museum Loft Singers, he is author of 'Community Choirs Collection – Folk' published by Faber Music, an editor of music publications, and a BASCA-nominated composer whose commissions include works for the Central School of Speech and Drama, the Choir of Somerville College, Oxford, Streetwise Opera, and most recently, the BBC Radio 4 series 'Playing the Skyline'.

Paul Hutchinson's love of fusion music originates from his days in the renowned Celtic jazzers, Hoover the Dog. Pagoda Project, with jazz clarinetist, Karen Wimhurst, is the next exciting chapter in his musical journey providing a vehicle for his own compositions. Their debut album received the only 5 Star review in the March edition of Songlines and glowing tributes from amongst others, FRoots.

Paul is resident tutor at Cecil Sharp House, Halsway Manor, Benslow Music Centre and Marlborough College. He has a keen interest in and knowledge of 17th and 18th Century dance music which has resulted in tours to Europe and America.

Belshazzar's Feast received a coveted nomination for the Best Duo Award at the 2010 BBC Folk Awards and are regulars at folk festivals across the summer, with touring including a popular annual Christmas tour of seasonal songs and tunes. They have released a series of critically acclaimed albums across their career, the latest being The Whiting's On The Wall (2014/Unearthed), a live album recorded over the course of two concerts at The Pound in Corsham.

Belshazzar's Feast play live at The David Hall, South Petherton on Saturday, December 17th. Tickets are available by calling 01460 240340 or from www.thedavidhall.org.uk

VIEW FROM the beehive

this December

With Wendy Van Der Plank

AFTER a very busy autumn things are really hotting up for Christmas at The Beehive with a wonderful assortment of entertainment to suit all tastes.

There are some fabulous family films and why traipse down to Exeter or Taunton when you can relax with your friends and family at The Beehive cinema, with lush ice creams and drinks you can enjoy whilst watching the movie?

To really begin the festive season the Royal Opera House live screening of The Royal Ballet performing 'The Nutcracker' is on Thursday, December 8th at 7.15pm. We offer special family tickets and there are still a few seats available for this event.

Other upcoming films include the touching true tale of a Ugandan child prodigy, chess player who raises her family from the slums in Disney's 'Queen Of Katwe' (PG) then we have two showings of 'Trolls' (U) at 3 and 5pm on Saturday, December 10th, and two showings of 'Dr Strange' (12A) on Saturday, December 17th at 5pm and 7.30pm.

On Friday, December 23rd at 2pm the fabulous festive 'Holiday Inn' starring Bing Crosby & Fred Astaire is our Nostalgic Cinema screening, followed by mulled wine and mince pies in the café bar all for only £3.50! This is a Dementia friendly screening for all.

For something totally different gather your friends or work mates and Rock up & Frock up or come Suited & Booted to the Flower Power Xmas Party on Friday, December 16th. After meeting up in the bar for a glass of fizz and nibbles, be seated at your table for three course homemade supper while enjoying the 60s & 70s show then get in the groove and dance the night away to the fabulous funky, Flower Power Band! All for £25.

Another fantastic live act, heading for another sell out show is our 'Mad Dog Mcreea' gig, don't be late for this one, as we have the awesome 'Esxies' all the way from Dublin, as the support act too.

For the hols this year we have a really enchanting family show, 'Freya-The Viking Saga' on Monday, December 19th at 11am and all tickets are £5. Suitable for 4+ this is the story of a plucky young Viking lass told with a great mixture of humour, music, puppetry and two actors in a really charming show.

We also have some very exciting shows lined up for next year, so do keep an eye on our website and pop in for our latest flyer. Jethro, Jay Rayner, Wille & The Bandits and David Suchet playing Lady Bracknell in the encore screening of 'The Importance of being Earnest' are just a few and what an assortment!

Feel free to come and visit us, browse the new Pauline Selhurst exhibition in the gallery or stop off for a drink and listen to the acoustic café performers on Wednesday, December 14th from 8pm.

Wishing all of our audiences, regular users, friends and fabulous team of volunteers a very happy, healthy Christmas and many thanks for your support. The Beehive will be closing on December 24th until Tuesday, January 3rd 2017. We very much look forward to seeing you at The Beehive soon. ## Showtime

OUR NEW SHOWBIZ COLUMN

My fear of missing out when there's so many shows to see

I'VE recently been introduced, by my younger colleagues, to an acronym, which often applies to my life; FOMO (fear of missing out) is something that becomes a weekly sensation when you spend half your time in one place and half in another.

I get invited to far more exciting things than I could possibly ever fit in and I often have to miss out on the capital started simply because I don't have the time in my schedule.

I also get FOMO when I'm in London and the gang from the office in Lyme Regis is out having fun, while I'm alone in the cold grey city (get your violins out; there really is no pleasing me). Occasionally, however, I manage to fit in everything I want and need to do, without any clashes, any worries about letting people down or any FOMO and this week looked like it was going to be one of those glorious weeks. My week in the capital started wonderfully by watching another beautiful performance of one of my favourite musicals, Side Show at Southwark Playhouse. This theatre is great if you want to see some good shows, near to Waterloo and at a very reasonable price (£25). There are a few similar 'Off West End' venues including the St. James Theatre at Victoria (which has just been bought by Andrew Lloyd Webber and will soon change its name to The Other Palace due to its proximity to Buckingham Palace), Park Theatre (a little further out, up at Finsbury Park) and the Menier Chocolate Factory, where they often test out big shows before they are transferred to the West End, so it's an affordable way to see some great stuff.

I then rushed out to South East London for my first Christmas show, which was in a pub theatre in Penge and starred Olivier award winner George Maguire (Sunny Afternoon) and Britain's got Talent favourite Rachael Wooding.

Alas it was not to be, however, as when I arrived there was another freelance journalist who writes for our papers also there, so I had to leave. I did get to hang out with the current Green Witch in Wicked (Rachel Tucker) who runs the theatre with her husband but I was definitely left with FOMO. It did mean I got an early night and when the alarm went off at 4:30am the next morning I was grateful for the extra hours in bed.

I was invited to a sober Disco on the ice rink at Somerset House at 6am and by jingo it was cold, but it was also such a great time of day to see the city. The event was wonderful and I escaped with all of my limbs and most of my dignity in tact.

After doing a bit of work (yes, I do have to do some) I popped in to see the brand new musical Dreamgirls at the Savoy Theatre. As it's still in previews, I'm not allowed to tell you my opinion on it yet (press are embarrassed until the official opening night), but it (although I think the boss has other plans!). They were presenting my favourite panto Cinderella and did a great job (you can read my review at viewnews.co.uk).

Next week I'll be off down to Exeter to review Peter Pan for Broadway World, before I venture to London to see Jest End (a clever mickey take of all the big West End shows), She Loves Me at the Menier Chocolate Factory (starring Scarlett Strallen and Les Dennis) before I officially attend a press performance of Dreamgirls at the Savoy Theatre (I wonder if I'll like it?). No FOMO for me next week!

You can read all of my reviews and interviews on our websites london-news.co.uk and viewnews.co.uk or you can follow me on Twitter for regular updates @Nicky Sweetland

The Sober Disco ice event at Somerset House which I had to attend at six in the morning was a great way to get out of the cold and the front row ticket (from the TodayTix lottery) was only £15.

People often ask me how to get cheap tickets for shows and my best advice is to shop around. Many of the shows do day seats (where you queue up at the box office on the day you want to go) and lotteries, which enable you to get great seats for a fraction of the usual price. My other tip is to go in January, as there are always fabulous offers on tickets after the New Year and Official London Theatre run their Get into London Theatre campaign with lots of great deals.

I also attended the glitzy launch of the What's On Stage awards, where I got to mingle with many of the stars of the West End including Tamsin Outhwaite, Kerry Ellis and the casts of all of the big West End shows. The nominations were announced with Dreamgirls and Harry Potter and the Cursed Child leading the field. Following a public vote the winners will be given their awards at a dazzling ceremony in February.

It turned out to be a celebrity filled day, as I then went to the press night of Buried Child, which stars famed Hollywood actor Ed Harris. It is a very well acted but baffling play and I'm not entirely sure what happened in the end. The highlight of the evening for me was sitting next to Josh Gad, who voiced Olaf the snowman in Disney's Frozen. I managed to resist the urge to ask him for a warm hug and when he asked me which bits of the UK he should see while he's here, I obviously told him he should come down to the South West (I actually invited him to the Great Lyme Regis Christmas Pudding Race, but he looked very confused when I tried to explain its concept!).

Greenslade Taylor Hunt Lettings

ASK HILLARY - JUSTIN LOWE PARTNER OF GREENSLADE TAYLOR HUNT LOOKS AT SOME FAST CHANGING ATTITUDES IN THE PROPERTY MARKET.

THE presidential election result in America reminded us - if we needed any reminding - that we live in a time of massive immediate and fundamental change. A point not lost on us here in the UK after Brexit. In the property industry even Budget tax changes can alter buying and selling habits overnight. But there is a more gradual, yet no less significant change going on in our country which is having a significant effect on our attitude to property.

The baby boomers are finally making way for the millennials - Generation X to Generation Y. The digital generation is becoming the increasingly dominant force in the property market. And that will only gather pace in the years ahead. But this new group does not think or act like the old one.

The baby boomers could be relied upon incrementally to develop their parents' ideas. This new generation have their own thoughts entirely. For income and social reasons they are generally older when they buy property for the first time. They are far happier to rent than their parents were. They are not so keen to take on older, larger properties and are more reluctant than the last generation to repair, renovate and re-model. DIY is not regarded as a recreation and leisure time pursuit for the younger generation. Millennials often prefer more compact homes built in thermally efficient and ecologically agreeable materials. They want to control the heat, security, lighting and garden irrigation from a beach in Thailand. Sometimes they prefer a holiday in Thailand to buying a property in the first place - a point of view their parents would never understand.

Millennials often tend to favour new homes over old ones - if they have the choice. Those baby boomers who are in the market now are planning retirement, and often prefer urban locations so they can be close to amenities such as shops, entertainment, transport and health services. Older rural properties remain in high demand but some changes may be required to maximise their value with younger or retirement buyers in mind. At Greenslade Taylor Hunt we understand this and will be able to recommend the right course of action.

Just as we witness year after year the dwindling numbers of world war veterans filing past the Cenotaph on Armistice Sunday, so we in the property industry witness a changing of the guard in the business of buying and selling homes. There has probably not been such a sweeping change in housing attitudes since the 1960s. The government should take note. Developers should take note. Estate agents should take note - and in particular house sellers should take note. For established norms in buyer behaviour are being swept away. The millennials have their own rules and everyone will have to get used to it, just as the political elite have to get used to it. Ask Hillary!

Symonds
& Sampson

ESTABLISHED 1858

JEREMY Smith, Partner of Symonds & Sampson has been instructed to market a super semi-detached property which lies on the edge of the always desirable village of Corscombe. Jeremy commented 'our vendor had a number of valuations and we are thrilled that she has chosen Symonds & Sampson to market her lovely property.'

This property was constructed in 2007 and has a lovely character feel also offering oil-fired central heating, double glazing and some country views. Hall, good size sitting room with wood burner and French doors, spacious kitchen/dining room, utility room and cloakroom. On the first floor are three double bedrooms, the master having an en-suite shower room and a family bathroom.

The rear gardens are pleasant, being laid to lawn with pathways and borders. At the rear of the garden is a semi-detached garage with a parking space adjoining.

Symonds & Sampson are quoting a guide price of £299,950 for the freehold, so why not call now for a viewing on 01308 863100.

SPOTLIGHT On My Services

Specialists in 2D & 3D CAD

Based in Colyton, East Devon, we have a wealth of experience and expertise in CAD drawing services & provide high quality, cost-effective CAD solutions.

We aim to provide a first-class service at all times, offering fast turnaround when you need high quality results to meet tight deadlines. We will provide CAD support best suited to your needs.

We can undertake anything from alterations to existing drawings through to production of complete drawing packages. We also provide a paper to CAD conversion service to convert your archive drawings into electronic format. The finished CAD drawings can be delivered printed or electronically in a choice of formats.

We also offer bespoke CAD training courses. 2D draughting and 3D modelling are important tools across many disciplines, therefore training individually tailored to your needs will equip you with the skills to maximise the usefulness of CAD in your particular field.

We also have a large format printing facility.

Next generation Ford Fiesta – world's most technologically advanced small car – delivers four distinctive personalities

FORD today revealed the next generation Ford Fiesta – the world's most technologically advanced small car – at a special Go Further event in Cologne, Germany. The next generation Fiesta is unveiled with the most sophisticated range of driver assistance technologies and connectivity features ever in a volume small car in Europe, as part of the most comprehensive and versatile line-up of variants in 40 years of Fiesta history.

Ford revealed four distinctive production variants of the Fiesta, including the stylish Fiesta Titanium, the Ford Performance-inspired Fiesta ST-Line, the upscale Fiesta Vignale and the Fiesta Active crossover – the first in a new line-up of Active vehicles to be rolled out across the Ford range in years to come.

Three- and five-door Fiesta variants will deliver superior quality and refinement; feature a stylish new exterior and revolutionary interior design with more personalisation options than ever before. Ford has also further enhanced the compelling fun to drive character that has helped make Fiesta the best-selling car in Britain every year since 2008.

"It's because we share our customers' passion for Fiesta that we've been able to take this iconic small car's lovable, fun and sporty-to-drive character to the next level, with a greater choice of models than ever and each with a distinctive personality," said Jim Farley, executive vice president and president, Europe Middle East and Africa, Ford Motor Company. "We now have a Fiesta option for every driver, including the luxurious Fiesta Vignale and the Fiesta Active crossover, with advanced technologies and features that small-car customers could only have dreamed of just a few years ago."

Among a class-leading range of Fiesta driver assistance features – supported by sensor technologies capable of monitoring up to 130 metres ahead – is an enhanced Pedestrian Detection system that for the first time can help prevent collisions at night; and the first Ford Active Park Assist system that can deliver brake interventions to prevent low-speed bumps when parking hands-free.

Fiesta is also the first Ford vehicle to feature a premium B&O PLAY Sound System, and for the first time offers an openable panoramic glass roof. The Fiesta's sophisticated SYNC 3 communications and entertainment system is supported by floating high-definition touchscreens up to 8 inches in size, and a spacious and ergonomic interior features an almost 50 per cent reduction in centre console buttons for a more intuitive environment.

Cutting-edge powertrains include Ford's multi-award winning 1.0-litre EcoBoost petrol engine offering up to 140PS, and a 1.5-litre TDCI diesel offering 120PS – the first high-power diesel Fiesta powertrain. Ford anticipates CO2 emissions from 82g/km, supported by an all-new six-speed transmission with innovative friction reduction technologies.

DEVON PREMIER CUP (R3)

AXMINSTER TOWN 1 NEWTOWN 3

(aet) Round Three – last 16

AXMINSTER Town crashed out of the Devon Premier Cup as they were on the wrong end of a minor giant killing at Tiger Way on Saturday.

However, despite performing in a division lower, Newtown are the reigning Devon & Exeter League Champions and they showed their class to book a place in the last eight.

Things started well for Ax when midfielder Danny Clay fired them ahead in the 17th minute via the shins of a covering defender, but Simon Piper equalised midway through the half with a low shot past keeper Scott Wells-Burr.

Things got harder for the hosts when they had Callum Garrett sent off after a 50-50 challenge and they were forced to play for the remaining 12 minutes and the whole of extra time with 10-men. The home players and supporters felt the decision looked harsh.

The depleted hosts went close in the extra half hour when Ben Vine headed narrowly over, but the visitors capitalised on their numerical advantage with goals from Ben Howard and Corey O'Donoghue.

Next Saturday Axminster, now sixth in the South West Peninsula League Division One (East) table, will look to bounce back and avenge a 3-0 beating in the reverse fixture back in September when they welcome LVERTON United, kick off at Tiger Way is 3pm.

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE

MATCH REPORTS

BEER ALBION 1 SEATON TOWN 1

Premier Division

BEER Albion and Seaton Town shared the spoils in the local derby on Saturday at the Furze-brake.

The match, which was played in front of a crowd of 150, was a typical hard-fought derby encounter with neither side being able to dominate throughout the 90 minutes.

Whilst much of Seaton's possession and approach play was easier on the eye, Beer's more direct style carried the bigger threat on the day and the Fishermen's players were disappointed not to have come away with the three points.

The real highlights of the game were two spectacular goals. From the outset both defences were on top. But it was Beer who showed first when Chris Long was put through but his attempted chip over the advancing Seaton keeper missed the target.

Seaton's first real threat came on 25 minutes when creative midfielder Jacob Rowe shot narrowly wide but Beer's Jake Clode countered a minute later with a good strike from 25 yards that also drifted wide of the upright.

Chances were few and far between. For the Fishermen, a good cross from George Harwood was seized on by Clode whose shot was deflected away by the keeper's legs. As the first half drew to a close Beer keeper Mark Rooke was at full stretch to save the Seaside's first effort on target.

Rooke had to be alert again at his left post two minutes into the second half to thwart an early Seaton strike. Immediately from his clearance came the best goal seen at the Furzebrake this season – a screaming 25-yard volley from nowhere from striker Chris Long to put Beer ahead.

Long almost doubled the Fishermen's lead on 57 minutes when his shot on the turn found its way under the keeper's body but was scrambled off the line.

As the half wore on the Seaton midfielder were getting more possession, but Beer's defence was looking solid although it took a desperate tackle by Mike Wheeler to prevent Seaton equalising on 67 minutes.

The Seaside's equaliser did however come on 78 minutes when a spectacular 30-yard strike from Richie Durrant was still rising as it hit the roof of the net.

Man-of-the-match for Beer was the hard-working Jake Clode whilst Rowe caught the eye for Seaton.

Next week the Fishermen travel to fellow Premier Division strugglers Newton St Cyres, whilst Beer Reserves entertain Alphington 3rds at The Furze-brake. Kick off is at 2.15 and match sponsor is Mike Anning.

MILLWEY RISE 1 BEER ALBION RES 2

Division Five

INJURIES and disallowed goals blighted Millwey's afternoon against Beer. In a first half that finished 1-1, Nathan Wormsley scored for the hosts and then almost immediately left the field with a recurrence of a hamstring injury.

The second half saw further substitutions to replace the injured Alex Rocket and Haydn Lewis who was unwell.

On top of this Millwey had two goals disallowed for offside and missed several chances to equalise the winning goal scored by the visitors 15 minutes into the half.

The bad luck was further compounded with news that striker Levi Hoole is now unlikely to be available for some weeks to come because of further damage to his knee injury.

D & E Round-up

FREE kick specialist Ben Ede denied HONITON TOWN with an equaliser after his old club looked set for a vital Premier victory against their nearest neighbours FENITON.

The Hippos had taken a second half lead through former Feniton player Tom Perryman, but Fenny manager Ede checked their hosts progress to earn a 1-1 draw. UPOTTERY were beaten 3-0 by Okehampton Argyle.

Meanwhile, COLYTON's interest in the Devon Senior Cup is over after they were beaten 3-1 at home by Lakeside Athletic. The visitors struck first but Jake Richards equalised on the stroke of half time. "We didn't play well, but they are a good side and wanted it more," said Coly boss Mike Cullum.

Free-scoring LYME REGIS moved up to third in Division One thanks to goals from Rob Fellingham (2pens), Mark Bailey, Lee Cleal, Cody Bowditch, Rhys Hayter and an OG in a 7-4 win over Willand Rovers Reserves.

In Division Three HONITON TOWN RESERVES stunned UNIVERSITY 3-2 with goals from Blake Freemantle (2) and Harry Leisk.

OTTERY ST MARY drew 4-4 at the University in the top game in Division Four.

The top match in Division Six ended all square at 2-2 between OFFWELL RANGERS and EXWICK VILLAGE, but goals from Ryan King and Dec Ellis saw LYME REGIS RESERVES grab all three points from an impressive 2-1 win at Central.

There was a huge upset in Division Eight where leaders UPOTTERY were beaten at SEVEN STARS KENNFORD 1-0.

EAST DEVON SENIOR CUP

Lyme Regis v Heavitree United (2pm)

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

HAWKCHURCH United's Division One promotion hopes were dented as they lost their unbeaten league record to a Warren Gabbidon goal in a surprise 1-0 home defeat at the hands of Ilminster Town Colts.

Meanwhile, FARWAY UNITED are out of the Jack Venn Cup after Crewkerne Rangers came from behind to win 3-2 at Hen-hays.

Fabio Souza put the Devonians in front but Mark Holton made it 1-1 at half time.

A double from Tommy Martin proved decisive and Jack Murrall's 84th minute goal counted for little.

Better news from FARWAY RESERVES who beat 10-man Drimpton Reserves 3-1 to reach the last eight of the John Fowler cup, Si Trim, Kai Fletcher and Charlie Horn scored for the winners.

Sessions are held at Flamingo Pool, Axminster, Cresta Pool Chard and Aqua Centre at Crewkerne.

netball honiton league

Top versus bottom games go to form

HI Q maintained their unbeaten record in Division One with a comfortable 58-22 win over Signs South West for whom faye Hawkins had a good game. Once again Laura French was the pick of the Hi Q players.

Flamingos also won convincingly beating Howden Hawks 55-9 Karen Hall and Rachel Larcombe for Flamingos and Hawks respectively were the star players.

A full complement of fixtures in Division Two saw Blackdown maintain their 100 percent record with a 40-22 victory against Swagtermamas.

Blackdown, with Teresa Sandeman in fine form, were in commanding form with a 36-14 lead going into the final period and the Mamas unlikely to get a point.

The final quarter saw the Mamas led by Karen Bennett outscore Blackdown for the first time in the game and to do enough to gain a point from the fixture.

Sidmouth Toucans held onto the top spot thanks to their 36-23 win over JD Tyres. Toucans took control in the second quarter and never looked back. Sarah Sparkes was the player of the game for Sidmouth whilst Tiffany Munt was the JD star.

Tip Top Trees had to work hard for their three points against a determined Beer Blazers, for whom both Gemma Langham and Steph Upton played well.

The Blazers took an early 10-5 lead before 3Ts drew level at half way, and then edged 24-22 up going into the final period. With Megan Gooding in her stride the Trees held out to win by 33-28, leaving Beer still looking for that elusive first victory.

The final game saw Otter Valley beat Pixies 29-18 in a close fought game. Emily Hardingham played well for Pixies whilst Alice Quick was the pick of the Valley.

ilminster angling

Double for Charles

THERE were 20 Ilminster AA members on the River Isle for the Christmas Fayre match on Sunday but after a week of heavy frosts, the river was painfully low and clear and after the leading weights, quite a few anglers struggled.

Justin Charles won his second match on the river with five big chub for 18lb from peg 108 at Redbridge. Steve Hurford was second with a bag of roach weighing 8lb from Hambridge and Jamie Rich was third with 6lb 12oz of chublets from peg 14 at Upper Coxes.

The club would like to thank Steve and Cindy at the Royal Oak, Ilminster for a fantastic meal, Rob Cox for organising a great match and John Dursley from Enterprise Angling for donating a prize.

The next Royal Oak match is on Sunday, the draw is at the Royal Oak between 8.30 and 9am.

Result; 1 – Justin Charles (Ilminster) – 18lb, 2 – Steve Hurford (Ilminster) – 8lb, 3 – Jamie Rich (Against Men and Fish) – 6lb 12oz, 4 – Stuart Aplin (Ilminster) – 6lb 9oz, 5 – Rob Cox (Ilminster) – 5lb 14oz.

Kenworthy crowned top Axe Cliff lady

HONITON with John Pawley

THE club's mixed group played their monthly drawn Greensomes competition with 24 players taking part.

The overnight frost meant that temporary greens were in play. For the second month running Sue Ritchie was a winner of the Centenary Chivers Goblets, with 37 points, and this time with Brian Morrison. In second were Maureen Tollemache & Paul Ritchie with 33 on count-back from Penny Blackburn & Laurie Tollemache.

Last Friday the Seniors took part in an individual Stableford combined with the second round of the Winter Eclectic competition. Despite temporary greens throughout – or perhaps because of them and the consequent shortening of the holes – scoring was exceptionally good.

In Division One Chris Street topped the list with 40pts with John Frith second on the same score. Dave Morgan was next on 39 with Mike Stroud fourth on 38 and David Woodruff fifth with 37.

Tom Stanton prevailed in Division Two with 39, a score also achieved by second-placed Rod Armitage. Bill Phillips was third with 38, Mike Delaney was fourth – also on 38, and Bob Underwood claimed fifth place with 37. There were two 2s – Ted Chandler on the second and Mike Delaney on the seventh.

◆ TOP TWO: Brian Morrison and Sue Ritchie

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

STEVE Bond & Simon Wellington just pipped Dave Morgan & Alan Cooper in a tightly contested final to become 2016 Axe Cliff Golf Club Men's section Four-somes Champions.

In one of the most testing formats in golf, each team play one ball per pair, each player taking alternate shots with the one ball. A fine tee shot by one partner can be ruined by the other player miss-hitting the second shot into a hazard.

Morgan & Cooper were in front right up to 14th hole when a poor hole for both pairs was won by Bond & Wellington with a bogey four. Pars on the 15th and the difficult feature hole 16th were enough to take Bond & Wellington two up with two to play.

In a shaky 17th hole for both parties, Wellington & Bond halved the hole which was good enough to win the match 2&1.

The Ladies section played the second of their Winter League matches over 15 holes, stableford format. Helen Kenworthy came first with an excellent 30 points. Second place went to a count-back between Stella Thompson who was placed runner up with 26 points from Sandra Walker who was placed third.

Later, the ladies held their Presentation evening followed by a Christmas meal. Helen Kenworthy won the Ladies Golfer of the Year and Anne Jarvis the Most Improved Handicap.

The Seniors' section played the third round of their Winter League matches which was won by Mike Jamieson & Rob Grove with a round of 37 points. In second were Alan Vincent & Tony Horton with 35 and David Lacey & Peter Hornsby were third. Alan Morgan carded the only two.

CRICKET ST THOMAS

with Bert Robinson

SIXTY members from the Seniors and

the Ladies section entered the recent Christmas Cracker tournament when 20 teams of one lady and two men contested a best two from three format.

In brilliant sunshine, the golfers enjoyed the conditions in what was Ladies

Captain Barbara Wilton final event after her two years in the post. A total of £228 was raised which is to be split between the chosen charities of the Men's and Ladies sections.

Result: 1st Hanna Jacobson; Bob Barrow & John McOmish 71 points, 2nd Ruth Dowell; Norman Markby & Malcolm Roy 70, 3rd Paula Bowles; John Wandless & Chris Denman 70.

Meanwhile, 30 Seniors attended the three man "all to count" competition last Wednesday.

Conditions were cold and frosty and the event was played utilising temporary greens, which made scoring easier on the shortened course.

Result: 1st Alan Chance; George Wallace & Nick George 111 points, 2nd Nick Gabb; Nobby Hodder & Roger Stone 110, 3rd Bert Robinson; John Pearce & Clive Fisk 108.

Having cancelled the Turkey Trot competition due to the bad weather on Friday, 24 Seniors opted for a best two from three Bowmaker event. Once again, the shortened course made for exaggerated scoring.

Result: 1st Fred Oliver; David Taylor & George Wallace 91 points, 2nd Jerry Stephens; Andy Beale & Mike King 89.

Big scalp for Thomas

THE individual performance of the week came from John Thomas (Chard Casuals) who managed to take two frames from Colyton TC's A graded player.

The result gave the Chard team eight bonus points which lifted them up to third in the table. Last seasons champions continue to pull away from the chasing pack with Ben Pike registering two breaks of 50.

Windsor in regal form in nationals

HONITON with Julie Grant

HONITON Ladies had success in the first round of the national triples knockout Vivienne competition.

Last week they played TORBAY, two rinks home, two away and won 76-47. Best triple were Thelma Flynn, Carol Armitage & Daphne Courtney who won away 24-11.

The men had success in the ICL winning overall by 20 shots and on three of the four rinks against DAWLISH.

The ladies played a new contest called the ISCA challenge. Playing on four rinks away they lost on two but won one and drew one. The challenge will be completed later in the season when ISCA come to Honiton.

In the mixed friendlies TAUNTON DEANE came to Honiton and won convincingly 90-57. Honiton's one winning rink was Liz Fielding, Fred Dart, George Kille 7 Cyril Dann 19-18. Against FENITON, Honiton won 85-54, top rink Thelma Flynn, Richard Bland & Cyril Dann 29-14.

AXMINSTER with David Harris

THE Ladies were unlucky to lose their recent County Lanes match against MIL DEVON 65-71.

The home rink of Angela Ratzenbury, Janet Parsons & Judith Moffitt won by just two shots whilst the other home rink of Brenda Edwards, Alison Glyde, & Margaret Crompton and the away rink of Sue Bond, Philippa White & Ann Clayton both lost by just two shots. The other away rink of Jo Barnish, Gill Campbell & Jean Kesterton lost by four shots.

In the mixed friendlies we had mixed results. First we lost 55-67 at MADEIRA with only Brian Smith, Anne Burn, Neil Solomon & Bob Sherborne managing a win (22-18).

Next we beat TAUNTON BC 71-54 at home with wins for John Packham, Barbara Mowatt, Nigel Bond & Budgie Hallows (31-18) and Morrison Brown, Chelsea Maher, Ann Clayton & Les Clark (23-17). Lastly we lost 41-59 at home to DONYATT losing on all rinks.

In the National KO competitions

James Windsor got through to the second round of the Under 18s with a splendid win at Yeovil against Jamie Day by two sets to nil (21-0) and (19-3).

At senior level our mixed fours side of Phil White, John Hill, David Harris & Ann Clayton got through the first round with a good win at Dorchester but lost at Moonfleet (Weymouth) in the second.

Likewise in the mixed pairs Phil White & David Harris won at home in the first round but lost away to a Dorchester pair in the second.

ILMINSTER with Des Maull

LAST Tuesday Ilminster had two teams in action in the over 60s double rink; the A team played STREET A in a one rink home and one away format.

Street proved too strong winning on both rinks and by 47-18. Details: Away, Des Maull, Dave Pugh, Roger Lench & Barry Sims 11-30; Home, Steve Peasland, Ken Parker, John Mitchell & Rod Parkin 7-17.

The B team won on both rinks and by 45-31 against WESTON ST ANDREWS. Details: Home, Gerry Morris, Kevin Hamilton, Chris Robinson & Paul Denslow 26-17; Away, Alan Holt, Eric Keith, Rowland Garland & Will Anderson 19-14. Ilminster B now play Street A in the next round.

On Saturday Ilminster Ladies were home to MINEHEAD in the Optica, a pairs, triples and fours competition with Ilminster winning all rinks. Details: Pairs, Alison Atyeo & Monica Woodland 27-10; Triples – Sarah lightfoot, Sue Spurway & Maureen Mitchell 31-11; Fours – Myra Childs, Christine Davies, Dot Whelan & Ann Truscott 29-12.

Sunday brought the visit of CHARDSTOCK for a three rink mixed friendly. Ilminster won on two of the three rinks. Details: Sue Donavon, Dave Cox, John Waddell & Tony Bickle 18 John Rolph 31; Steve Peasland, John Pemberton, Hilary Leamon & Colin Osborne 37 Ann Sebrigt 8; Brian Welch, Joan Gratrix, Dave Crouch & Roger Lench 30 Simon Hatcliffe 5.

rugby chard

Depleted Chard fail to build on victory

North Petherton 36 Chard 24

South West Division One

AFTER the terrific win against high flying Newent the previous weekend, Chard Rugby Club were hoping for another win at North Petherton on Saturday but sadly it was not to be writes Glyn Hughes.

Unfortunately, owing to sickness and injury, Chard lost the services of four of the team that had played against Newent and had to bring in coach Simon Jenkins for his first game of the season to try and bolster the front row which had to be completely rebuilt for this match.

Right from the off the aggressive and well drilled Petherton forwards showed that they would be a handful, particularly in loose play, and following some excellent driving mauls, set up a converted try for Jack Kohler who scored under the posts after only five minutes.

Chard were soon back in the game when they ran the ball from a penalty and Will Hopkinson drove over for a try which was converted from wide out on the left by Oesmani.

Midway through the half the home side scored their second converted try when Chard were again unable to stop their drive to the line, this was again converted so Petherton led 14-7

Chard were guilty of giving away a number of penalties and, with the ground gained from kicking to touch, Petherton crossed for their third try which was not converted.

Soon after the restart Chard were awarded a penalty kick as result of a high dangerous tackle and Oesmani drilled the ball between the uprights to make the half time score 19-10

As well as conceding a number of penalties Chard had been making other basic errors, particularly not being able to secure and keep the ball in key situations, and in their general handling.

They were given a harsh lesson direct from the restart in the second half when they failed to secure the kick off and Petherton crossed for their fourth and bonus point try.

For a short time things went from bad to worse for Chard as they had a player sent to the bin for a deliberate knock-on and from the resultant penalty Kohler crossed for his second try which was again converted.

North Petherton were at this stage well on top and scored another try in dubious circumstances as a home player clearly lost the ball as he was about to touch down. The referee, who had had a very good game, was unsighted but accepted the word of the home touch judge who said it was a fair score!

This seemed to spark Chard and they had their best spell the final quarter when Jenkins and Oesmani scored two converted tries.

The Chard backs are clearly now a lot stronger but this has coincided with the forwards not being able to dominate the exchanges up front and the injury to vice captain Luke Aplin is a big blow.

However, the effort of the players can not be doubted and next Saturday they have a really big game at home to OKEHAMPTON (2.15pm ko).

The 2nd and 3rd xv games were postponed because there were no referees available.

Next Saturday the 2nd xv are away at TOR and the 3rd xv are away at WINCANTON.
